Title of book: Holes
By Louis Sachar

Book Review: This is a story about a boy named Stanley Yelnats (that’s Stanley backwards). He believes he is cursed because bad things keep happening to him. He gets sent to Camp Green Lake for a crime he did not commit. There is no lake here, but there are a lot of holes as the kids must spend every day digging huge holes. Stanley meets up with a whole bunch of different characters and soon realizes the boys aren’t just digging holes because they are being punished. They are digging holes because the warden is looking for something! This is a funny story of crime, punishment and redemption! Holes was so good, they made it into a movie! But as always… read the book, it is so much better than the movie!
